

Joshua Chapters 9 to 13 – 5 more Studies – Part 3

Please Note the following:

1. It is not necessary to answer the Bible Study Questions before meeting together for the Bible Study. Some people like to prepare beforehand whereas others like to think through the Bible Passages in a group setting. It is also not compulsory to answer ALL the questions.
2. It is not necessary to look up all the Bible cross references listed in a particular question; your Growth Group Leader will summarize these Bible cross references for you.
3. Just a reminder that sometimes in our Growth Groups, people feel comfortable sharing very personal and sensitive things about their lives. This information MUST BE CONFIDENTIAL and NEVER LEAVE THE GROUP

Study 1 – They did not inquire of the Lord

Joshua 9:1-27

(Sermon on 31st May 2026)

Before we begin, we need some background

Read Exodus 23:31-33; 34:12

1. What instructions does God give the Israelites here about occupying the Promised Land ?

Exodus 23:31-33 - I will establish your borders from the Red Sea to the Mediterranean Sea, and from the desert to the Euphrates River. I will give into your hands the people who live in the land, and you will drive them out before you. ³² Do not make a covenant with them or with their gods. ³³ Do not let them live in your land or they will cause you to sin against me, because the worship of their gods will certainly be a snare to you.

Exodus 34:12 - Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land where you are going, or they will be a snare among you.

God warns the Israelites not to make a covenant with the people in Canaan, otherwise they will influence the Israelites and “be a snare to you”.

Read Deuteronomy 7:1-2

2. Likewise, what instructions does God give the Israelites here?

Deuteronomy 7:1-2 - When the Lord your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess and drives out before you many nations—the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, seven nations larger and stronger than you— ² and when the Lord your God has delivered them over to you and you have defeated them, then you must destroy them totally. Make no treaty with them, and show them no mercy.

God instructs the Israelites to totally destroy the Canaanites and to not make a treaty nor have mercy on them.

Read Deuteronomy 20:10-18

3. Summarise the instructions God gives the Israelites here.

Deuteronomy 20:10-18 - ¹⁰ When you march up to attack a city, make its people an offer of peace. ¹¹ If they accept and open their gates, all the people in it shall be subject to forced labor and shall work for you. ¹² If they refuse to make peace and they engage you in battle, lay siege to that city. ¹³ When the Lord your God delivers it into your hand, put to the sword all the men in it. ¹⁴ As for the women, the children, the livestock and everything else in the city, you may take these as plunder for yourselves. And you may use the plunder the Lord your God gives you from your enemies. ¹⁵ This is how you are to treat all the cities that are at a distance from you and do not belong to the nations nearby. ¹⁶ However, in the cities of the nations the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance, do not leave alive anything that breathes. ¹⁷ Completely destroy them—the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites—as the Lord your God has commanded you. ¹⁸ Otherwise, they will teach you to follow all the detestable things they do in worshiping their gods, and you will sin against the Lord your God.

Read Joshua 9:1-27

1. What causes the kings of Canaan to unite against the Israelites? (vv1-2)

The Kings of Canaan heard about Israel's victories against Jericho and Ai, and realize the threat the Israelites pose. Fear of Israel and of the Lord's power leads them to form a coalition against Joshua and the Israelites.

2. How do the Gibeonites act differently to the other nations? (vv3-6)

Instead of preparing for war, the Gibeonites seek peace. They use deception, pretending to come from a distant country, in order to secure a treaty with Israel. The Gibeonites will try to deceive Israel into making a peace treaty with them, though Israel was forbidden to make peace with any of the tribes of Canaan (Exodus 23:23-24).

3. What evidence do the Gibeonites offer to make their claim credible? (vv4-5, 12-13)

V4 – They present with donkeys with worn-out sacks and wineskins, cracked and mended.

V5 – They put worn and patched sandals on their feet and wore old clothes.

V12 – They present with dry and moldy bread.

V13 – They present with cracked wineskins saying they were new when they left home. They present with worn out clothes and sandals, which they say are worn out for a very long journey.

Notice the methods of deception used by the Gibeonites. They were clever (craftily), they misrepresented themselves (pretended), and they even gave false “evidence” as part of their deception (old sacks...old wineskins...old and patched sandals...dry and moldy bread).

Beyond their deceptive appearance, the Gibeonites simply lied. They said, “We have come from a far country” when of course they had not. All their other devices simply lead to strengthen the deception offered.

The Gibeonites mentioned they were “servants” of Joshua and the Israelites in verse 8, 9, 10, 24. Plainly, the Gibeonites lied to Israel. But despite their lies, they have a proper admiration and honor for the God of Israel. Because of the name of the Lord your God; for we have heard of His fame shows that it is because God fights for Israel, they know it would be useless to oppose the nation.

Note: There could be many reasons why clothes/sandals are worn out and wineskins are cracked and bread is dry and moldy; not just from a long journey!

4. What do the Gibeonites claim they have heard about the Lord God? (vv9-10)

The Gibeonites claim they heard the fame of the Lord the God of Israel; they heard reports of what God did in Egypt (Plagues/Exodus/Red Sea Crossing); they heard what God did to the two Kings [Sihon King of Heshbon and Og King of Bashan] of the Amorites east of the Jordan.

5. What request do the Gibeonites make to Joshua? (vv6, 11)

V6 – “We have come from a distant country; make a treaty with us”

V11 – “We are you servants, make a treaty with us”

6. How is verse 14 a turning point? What important thing do the Israelites fail to do?

This is a turning point!

*V14 – The Israelites sampled their provisions but did not inquire of the Lord!

It's all very well listening to the Gibeonites story and sampling their provisions; but God's Word warned them about making a treaty with the occupants of Canaan; however they made the assumption that the Gibeonites were from a long way away rather than from Canaan, in which case, God had said to Moses, if a city that was not in the Promised Land, but from far away, it was permitted to offer peace to the occupants of the city and also subject them to forced labour!

The Gibeonite deception was clever, and therefore powerful. But the real problem was that Joshua and the leaders of Israel never sought the Lord.

The Israelites sampled the food but this shows that they trusted their senses instead of the Lord. "Look at this bread. Feel and taste how stale it is. Surely, they must have come a long way." They walked by sight, not by faith.

7. What covenant does Joshua make with the Gibeonites? (v15)

Joshua made a treaty of peace with them to let them live, and the leaders of the assembly ratified it by oath.

Because the Israelites believed that the Gibeonites were from a distant land, they made the treaty with them. God allowed Israel to make treaties with distant nations, but not with the Canaanites.

8. Why do the leaders refuse to attack the Gibeonites after discovering the deception? (vv18-20)

The Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the assembly had sworn an oath to them by the Lord, the God of Israel. Even though the assembly grumbled against the leaders, the leaders stood firm because of the oath they had made. The leaders insist that they will let the Gibeonites live so that the wrath of God will not fall on the Israelites for breaking the oath they swore to the Gibeonites.

The rulers of Israel were wise in not allowing one sin (wiping out the Gibeonites) to follow another sin (making the oath without seeking the Lord), especially in light of public pressure to do otherwise. It is a mark of godliness to hold to an oath, even when it is difficult. But he honors those who fear the Lord; he who swears to his own hurt and does not change. (Psalm 15:4)

It is a mark of godliness to hold to an oath, even when it is difficult. But he honors those who fear the Lord; he who swears to his own hurt and does not change. (Psalm 15:4).

Later, King Saul broke this vow to the Gibeonites and his sin brought famine upon Israel in the days of David (2 Samuel 21:1-9). Now there was a famine in the days of David for three years, year after year; and David inquired of the Lord. And the Lord answered, "It is because of Saul and his bloodthirsty house, because he killed the Gibeonites." (2 Samuel 21:1)

9. What reason do the Gibeonites give for their actions? (v24)

The Gibeonites were afraid of being totally destroyed because they had heard that God had commanded Israel to destroy the whole land and to wipe out all the inhabitants of the land. They also say in verse 25 "we are in your hands. Do to us whatever seems good and right to you"

10. Why do you think the Gibeonites chose deception instead of war? (vv.3–6)

They knew they could not defeat Israel militarily. Their deception was an act of desperation for survival.

11. What does this chapter teach about relying on appearances rather than seeking God? (vv.4–5, 12–14)

*Appearances can be misleading. Human judgment alone is insufficient. God's people need wisdom and guidance from the Lord rather than relying merely on what seems obvious. Every matter (however small) needs to be brought before the Lord in prayer and with reference to God's Word, which contains ALL the wisdom we need!

12. What does Israel's decision to keep the covenant reveal about truthfulness and integrity? (vv.18–20)

*God's people are to honour their word and their promises, even when keeping them becomes costly or inconvenient. Integrity matters because promises are made before God.

13. How do mercy and judgment both appear in Joshua's treatment of the Gibeonites? (vv.22–27). Is there a spiritual benefit for the Gibeonites here?

Judgment:

- Their deception is exposed and punished.
- They become servants: serving as woodcutters and water carriers for the assembly, to provide for the needs of the altar of the Lord.

Mercy:

- Their lives are spared; they are not wiped out!
- They are brought into Israel's community.

Spiritual benefit:

Yes. They are assigned to serve at the place of worship and near the altar. They come into close contact with the worship of the true God. Their physical rescue leads to spiritual privilege. They will hear the Word of God and His Law each day as they serve!

Significantly, there seems to be no complaint from the Gibeonites. They simply say, "here we are, in your hands; do with us as it seems good and right to do to us."

Essentially, they were happy with the prospect of being incorporated into Israel, and being made servants of the Lord, even if it was in menial service.

i. In this, the Gibeonites express the same heart David did in Psalm 84:10: For a day in Your courts is better than a thousand. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God than dwell in the tents of wickedness.

ii. It is essential to see that they did this out of a love for the God of Israel, not out of weakness. Indeed, it was said of Gibeon that all its men were mighty (Joshua 10:2).

The Gibeonites found salvation in the God of Israel much as Rahab did in Joshua 2.

- Both Rahab and the Gibeonites came to the God of Israel as sinners, Rahab as a harlot, and the Gibeonites as liars.
- Both Rahab and the Gibeonites were willing to risk the forsaking of their former associations and be counted among God's people. The risk the Gibeonites took was explained in Joshua 10:4, where they were a target of attack for their dealings with Israel.

- Both Rahab and the Gibeonites, after they found salvation through the God of Israel, had a rich history.

The Gibeonites after Joshua 9.

- The Gibeonites became servants at the tabernacle, just as Joshua had commanded.
- Gibeon becomes a priestly city; the ark of the covenant stayed at Gibeon often in the days of David and Solomon (1 Chronicles 16:39-40 and 21:29).
- At least one of David's mighty men was a Gibeonite (1 Chronicles 12:4).
- God appeared and spoke to Solomon at Gibeon (1 Kings 3:4-5).
- Gibeonites were among those who rebuilt the walls of Jerusalem with Nehemiah (Nehemiah 3:7 and 7:25).
- Prophets such as Hananiah the son of Azur came from Gibeon (Jeremiah 28:1).

14. In what situations can Christians today make decisions without seeking God's guidance? (v.14)

Examples where Christians make decisions today without seeking God's guidance:

- Study options
- Career/employment choices.
- Relationships.
- Ministry decisions.
- Financial commitments.
- Major purchases.
- Church leadership decisions.

Sometimes we rely on our experience, our logic, or appearances instead of prayer and Scripture.

15. What are some ways people can be spiritually deceived by appearances or persuasive words?

- False teaching that sounds biblical. For example: "God is for love, therefore why would He be against loving same sex relationships"
- Charismatic leaders who have poor character.

- Promises of prosperity without teaching repentance.
- Worldly values presented as wisdom.
- Online influences and social media personalities.

16. Why is it important for Christians to keep their promises even when it is difficult? (vv.18–20)

Because God is always faithful and as His people and His image-bearers we are called to reflect His character. Keeping promises demonstrates integrity, trustworthiness, and obedience. Always, when we make promises we are making them before God!

17. Have you ever faced the dilemma of conflicting laws or commands? How did you handle that?

Some examples to consider:

- Telling the truth versus protecting someone's feelings
- Honouring parents when they are telling us to do things which are contrary to God's Word
- Compromised at work when boss wants us to lie or deceive which goes against our Christian principles
- Being asked to except a transgender person's decision to changed gender and to call a transgender person by their transgender name

18. When did you last inquire of the Lord? How did the Lord answer?

This is a personal reflection question. I have inquired of the Lord many times recently.

Here are some ways God answers:

- Through words from Scripture when reading the Bible
- Through answers to my prayers
- Through wise Christian counsel from Godly Christians
- Through circumstances guided by God's sovereignty
- Through God's quiet voice
- Through prompting/leading by the Holy Spirit

Where is JESUS in Joshua 9:1-27?

- In contrast to Joshua and the Israelites, Jesus is NEVER DECEIVED; we should be pleased and comforted by that. We might be deceived or we might deceive other people but no-one can deceive Jesus. He knows where we come from, where we are going; He knows what we think; He knows what we post on social media, even if we post anonymously
- Like Joshua and the Israelites, Jesus makes a covenant/treaty of peace with sinners. Joshua and the Israelites are deceived when they make this treaty whereas Jesus is not deceived; He knows what He is doing and in making this covenant of peace, He takes the penalty/punishment of sin off sinners and on to Himself. Sinners who come to Jesus, must come in absolute surrender to Jesus to be saved.
- Just like Joshua and the elders, Jesus is a covenant keeper
- As always in Joshua; Jesus is the greater Joshua – He never acts independently of God the Father, whereas Joshua failed to seek God and was deceived
- The Gibeonites deserved judgment but they sought refuge among God's people. Likewise sinners deserve judgment but find mercy/refuge in Jesus
- The Gibeonites' inclusion is a picture of the Gentiles inclusion into Jesus, through the blood of Jesus which was shed for Jews and Gentiles alike
- Jesus is our true refuge. The Gibeonites flee to Israel for safety; sinners flee to Jesus for salvation.

19. How do the following passages relate to Joshua 9:1-27?

Psalm 15:4

The righteous person keeps an oath even when it hurts. Israel models this by honouring the covenant they made with the Gibeonites

Proverbs 2:1-6

Proverbs 2 says God gives wisdom to those who seek Him. Israel's mistake was failing to seek God's wisdom.

Matthew 5:33-37

Jesus teaches that previously people were taught not to break oaths and vows; but He urges people it's better not to make oaths/vows but simply to mean "Yes" when you say "Yes" and to mean "No" when you say "No". Jesus teaches honesty and faithfulness in speech. Israel's leaders keep their word despite the circumstances.

Matthew 23:16-22

Jesus condemns manipulative distinctions about oaths. He says oaths are made before God are therefore serious and binding. Joshua and the Israelites operate that way!

Ephesians 5:15-17

Believers are to walk wisely and discern God's will. Joshua 9 shows the consequences of failing to do so.

Ephesians 6:10-18

The Gibeonite deception reminds believers that spiritual warfare involves truth and discernment, not merely physical conflict. We are also in spiritual warfare and so we need to put on God's armour for protection described in Ephesians 6:10-18.

James 1:5

James encourages to ask God for wisdom and God will give freely. Israel needed the wisdom but they failed to ask God.

James 4:2

James 4:2 says "you do not have because you do not ask". Israel failed to ask God.

James 5:12

James encourages Christians not to swear by Heaven or Earth or by anything else, but to simply say "Yes" or "No". They are to be dependable. James is not forbidding all formal oaths (God Himself makes covenant promises, and lawful oaths appear elsewhere in Scripture). Rather, he is teaching that Christians should be so truthful that their ordinary words can be trusted. There should be no need for elaborate oath-taking to convince people.

Israel treated their oath seriously and with integrity, even though they discovered they had been deceived by the Gibeonites. James would agree that words spoken before God are not casual matters.

Whereas the Gibeonites' whole strategy depended on lies. Their deception created a difficult situation for Israel. James teaches believers to be people of straightforward honesty—"Yes" means yes and "No" means no. The Gibeonites are an example of the opposite.

God's people should be known for integrity

Joshua and the leaders could have argued:

- "We were tricked."
- "The treaty was based on false information."
- "Let's break it."

Instead, they chose integrity over convenience. James calls Christians to the same kind of reliability in speech and commitments.

1 John 4:1

John warns his readers not to believe every spirit but to test the spirits to see if they are from God, because there are many false prophets in the world. Joshua and the Israel believed the Gibeonites story without "testing" it!

What's the BIG IDEA of Joshua 9:1-27?

God's people must seek the Lord's wisdom rather than relying on appearances, and having made promises in His name, must honour them with integrity.

OR

Trust God's guidance, not human appearances, and keep your word because God is faithful.

V14 - The Israelites sampled their provisions but did not inquire of the Lord

Finish in prayer: Heavenly Father, thank You that You are wise, faithful, and full of mercy. Please help us to seek Your guidance instead of relying on appearances or our own understanding. Give us discernment, integrity, and humble hearts that trust You in every decision. Thank You that through Jesus You bring outsiders near and make us part of Your people by grace. Help us to walk faithfully with You this week.. Amen.

Study 2 – Surely the Lord was fighting for Israel!

Joshua 10:1-43

(Sermon on 7th June 2026)

Read Joshau 10:1-15

1. Why were the kings of the Amorites alarmed about Gibeon joining Israel? (vv1–2)
King Adoni-Zedek, the King of Jerusalem and the Kings of Amorites were alarmed because Gibeon was a large and important city with mighty warriors, and its alliance with Israel strengthened Israel's position and weakened the Amorite coalition.

Adoni-Zedek also had reason to be concerned from a strategic perspective. The previous victories across the middle of Canaan effectively separated Canaan between north and south. "Israel controlled the Benjaminite plateau, the crossroads between the hill country and the Judean wilderness. It provided access to the coastal plain and lowlands to the west via the Beth Horon pass."

2. What did the five kings decide to do against Gibeon? (vv3–5)

They united their armies and attacked Gibeon because it had made peace with Israel. In addition, the surrender and subordination of the Gibeonites caused Adoni-Zedek to be afraid. Gibeon was a great city and its men were mighty — if they surrendered to Israel, things were bad for the Canaanites.

3. What message did the men of Gibeon send to Joshua? (v6)

They sent word to Joshua at the camp at Gilgal and said" Do not abandon your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us, because all the Amorite kings from the hill country have joined forces against us."

This would have been a good opportunity for Joshua and the Israelites to get out of the oath they made when they were deceived by the Gibeonites. But Joshua had much more integrity than that!

Gilgal was an important place for Israel's conquest of Canaan.

- Gilgal was the place of memorial (Joshua 4:20).
- Gilgal was the place of radical obedience (Joshua 5:2-3).
- Gilgal was the place where reproach was removed (Joshua 5:9).
- Gilgal was the place of obedience and the remembrance of salvation (Joshua 5:10).

- Gilgal was the place where the manna stopped, and they began to live from what the Promised Land provided (Joshua 5:11-12).

4. What encouragement did the Lord give Joshua before the battle? (vv7-8)

God told Joshua not to fear because He had given the enemy into Israel's hands and not one of them would be able to withstand Israel.

Fear takes away our ability to fight God's battles. Even in the face of strong enemies, Joshua was commanded to not fear. For Joshua, fear was unbelief — being unwilling to believe what God promised. So it is with us today.

5. How does verse 9 show that Joshua is committed to help Gibeon? (v9)

Joshua marched all night from Gilgal, making a difficult and exhausting journey so he could come to Gibeon's aid quickly.

Literally going the extra mile as Jesus taught in the Sermon on the Mount.

With the assurance of God's promise (Joshua 10:8), Joshua did not sit back to passively watch God work without his participation. He went to great effort to participate in the work and will of God.

This took hard work and initiative on Joshua's part. The march from Gilgal to Gibeon involved a climb of 3,300 feet (1,000 meters), over a distance of about 20 miles (32 kilometers). This was eight to ten hours of hard marching, all through the night.

i. God does His work, but He draws us into working with Him. Often God waits to see our initiative, our willingness to be a partner with Him, before He does what only He can do.

ii. This is not the idea that "God helps those who help themselves." The idea is "God wants to draw His people into partnership with Him in seeing His work done."

6. Who is really in control of the battle? How? (vv10-11)

The Lord is sovereign and in control. He threw the enemy into confusion, enabled Israel to defeat them, and sent large hailstones that killed more of the enemy than Israelites' swords.

The hailstones that killed the retreating armies of the Canaanites were obviously miraculous. The hail itself could have been a phenomenon of nature, but its aim and timing were evidence of the hand of God.

i. “The Canaanites, who worshipped nature deities, must have thought that their own gods were aiding the Israelites.” (Madvig)

ii. In Worlds in Collision, Immanuel Velikovsky suggested that this rain of hailstones was actually a sustained meteor show, the train of a comet. He also theorized that the passing of the comet was related to the next amazing work of God for Israel and Joshua.

God’s miraculous work was much greater than Israel’s work. Yet we notice that Joshua didn’t wait around for the hail to come. He did what he could do in partnership with God, and God did what only God could do.

7. What prayer did Joshua offer up and how was it answered? (vv12-14)

Joshua prayed for the sun to stand still over Gibeon and the moon over the Valley of Aijalon. God answered by extending the day so Israel could complete its victory.

Seeing God’s miraculous hand in action gave Joshua the boldness to ask for an even more remarkable miracle — to keep the day going, to keep the sun from setting, so that Israel had time to accomplish a complete victory before darkness fell.

i. The sun and the moon had long stood as silent witnesses to the sin, wickedness, and demonic religion of these Canaanites. Now, under the command of God, they helped Joshua to complete this victory over the Canaanites.

In a completely unique miracle, God answered Joshua’s bold prayer and the Lord fought for Israel in a unique way during Israel’s conquest of Canaan.

i. Some people wonder how the length of the day was extended. It could have been a slowing of the earth’s rotation; it could have been a tilting of the earth’s axis; it could have been a miracle of reflection of light; it could have been simply the presence of God manifested in light.

ii. However it was done, the result was clear. The sun seemed to stay still in the sky, and Israel was able to complete the victory.

iii. In Worlds in Collision, Immanuel Velikovsky suggested that the long day was caused by the near pass of a comet, that was powerful enough to tilt the axis of the earth. “The tilting of the axis could produce the visual effect of a retrogressing or arrested sun; a greater tilting, a multiple day or night” [page 385]. He also noted that there are records among the ancient Americans that speak of an extraordinarily long night in the same approximate time.

iv. Some criticize this account, saying that obviously, since the sun is still, and the earth rotates around the sun, that Joshua is wrong when he says the sun stood still. This kind of criticism doesn't account for our normal way of speaking. We use the terms sunrise and sunset without a second thought. In addition, more modern astronomy tells us that the sun is in motion; perhaps the sun did literally stand still.

v. Hundreds of years later, God used the prophet Isaiah to bring a heavy word of coming judgment to His people. In that word, God remembered Gibeon, where He had won a great victory for Israel in Joshua's day (Isaiah 28:20-22). Isaiah warned the people that this miraculous strength of God would be turned against His people if they did not repent. As Isaiah put it, this use of God's strength against His people is surely His awesome work, or as the King James Version puts it, His strange work. Joshua did not ask God to do the fighting for him, even though God did do some of that. Joshua simply asked that God miraculously give him the opportunity to fight for Him.

i. Like Joshua, we often wish that time would stay still. We would do well to imitate Joshua's reasons for an extended time. Joshua wanted time to stay still so that:

- God would be glorified.
- God would be obeyed.
- God's work would be continued without hindrance.
- God's people would triumph.

8. What does verse 14 teach about God's relationship with His people?

God listens to the prayers of His people and acts powerfully on their behalf. And of course the key phrase "Surely the Lord was fighting for Israel!"

9. How do verses 1 to 15 show God's power and human responsibility working together?

Joshua and Israel marched, fought, and obeyed God's commands, while God provided victory through His sovereign intervention. Israel worked faithfully, but God secured the victory. Often God involves us in His work!

10. What encouragement does this passage give us about bringing impossible situations to God in prayer?

Nothing is too difficult for God. We can confidently pray about situations that seem impossible, trusting that He is able to act according to His will and power.

Read Joshua 10:16-27

11. Where did the five kings hide and how did Joshua handle that? (vv16-18)
They hid in a cave at Makkedah. Joshua ordered large stones rolled over the cave entrance and posted guards there. Then he continued to pursue the enemies, knowing he could deal with the five kings later!

12. Why did Joshua tell the Israelites to continue pursuing the enemy instead of stopping at the cave? (v19)

Because the battle was not yet finished and Joshua knew the Lord had given the enemy into his hands. Joshua wanted to complete the victory and prevent the enemy from escaping into fortified cities.

Note on v21: No one moved his tongue against any of the children of Israel: The people of Canaan knew — beyond any doubt — that God was with Joshua and the nation of Israel.

i. By analogy and application, the church — just like Israel — should be feared in the sense that it should be a place where people know God will conquer them. They should have the idea “If I keep coming here, God is going to conquer me. I’ll have to submit my life to Him.” Too many churches present a harmless sort of God who demands no surrender from His people.

13. What happened to the kings after the battle was completed? (vv22–27)

They were brought out of the cave, humiliated before Israel's leaders, executed, and hung on trees until evening before being buried in the same cave they hid in! Joshua did not spare any of the Kings — this meant if Joshua was ever captured, he knew he would suffer the same fate!

V24 - Come near, put your feet on the necks of these kings: *This was dramatic and undeniably brutal. Joshua, directed by God, wanted to give these captains of the men of war courage and the sense of victory in obedience to God. This said, “God has allowed you to conquer kings.”

14. Why do you think Joshua told the leaders not to be afraid or discouraged? (v25). See 2 Corinthians 1:4 for help.

God's victory over these kings would strengthen Israel's faith and courage for future battles. As believers are comforted so they can comfort others (2 Corinthians 1:4), Joshua encouraged the leaders with God's faithfulness so they could encourage the nation. Also, back in Joshua 1:6, 7, 9 – God had told Joshua not to be strong and courageous and not to be afraid, because God would be with him. Joshua, having now experienced God being with him through many battles, has the confidence to pass this on to his army now! We can do the same with a fellow brothers and sisters in Christ!

15. How does God’s victory over the kings encourage believers facing spiritual opposition today?

It reminds us that God is greater than every spiritual enemy and that ultimate victory belongs to Him. We can face opposition with confidence in His power.

Read Joshua 10:28-43

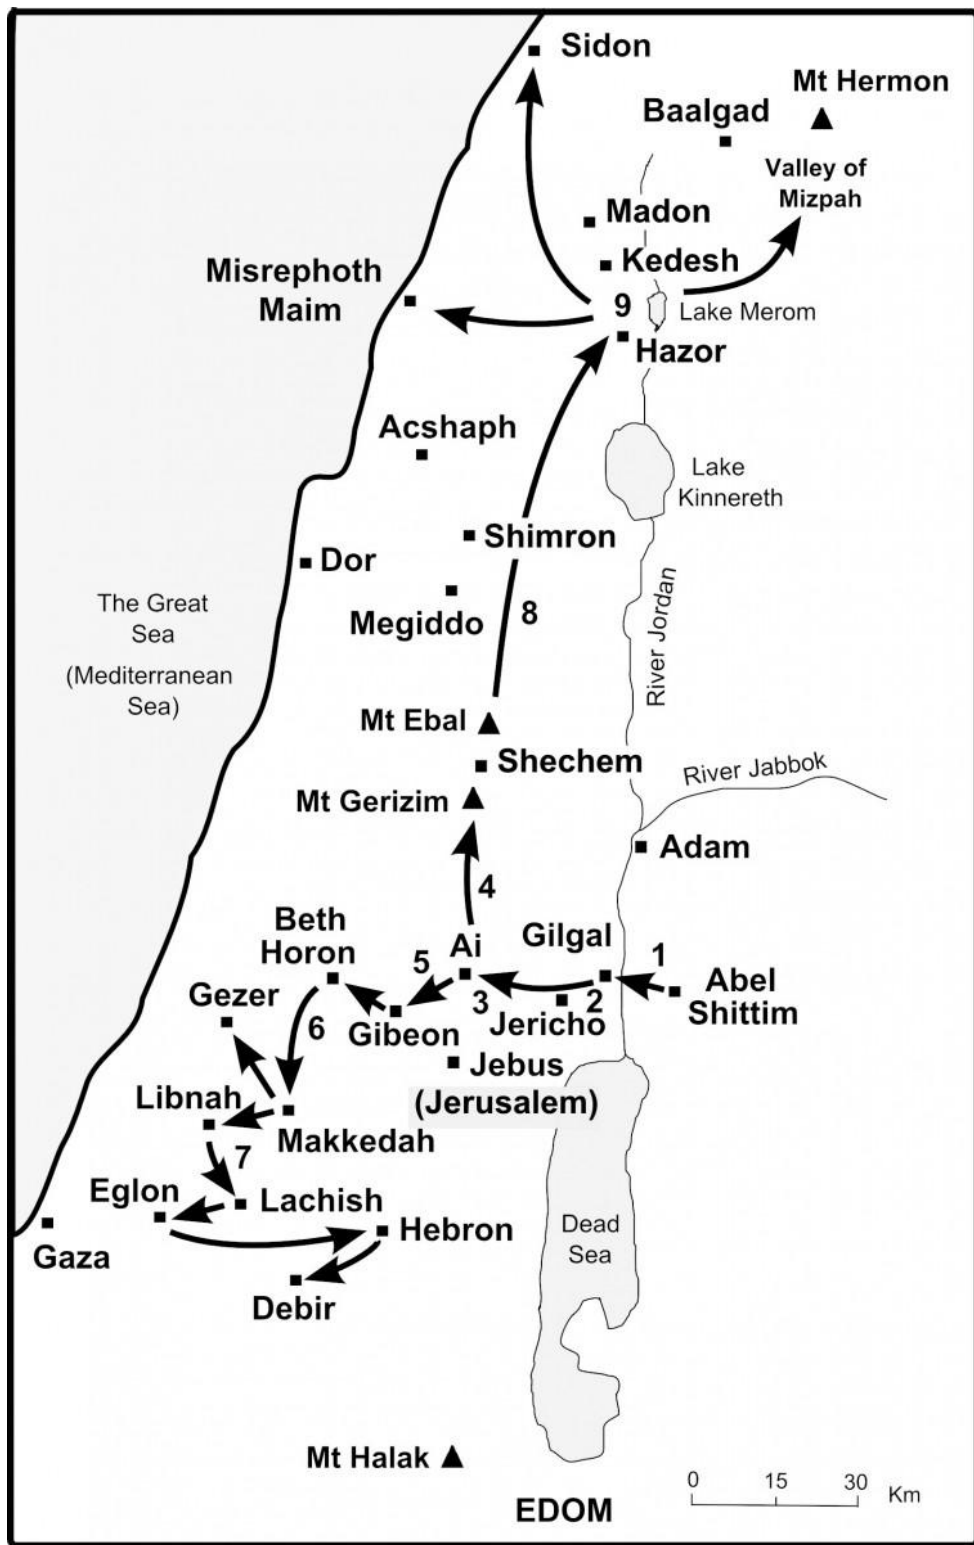

16. Which cities and kings are specifically mentioned as defeated by Joshua? (vv28–39)

Makkedah (v28); Libnah (v29); Lachish (vv31-32); Gezer (whose King came to help Lachish – v33); Eglon (vv34-35); Hebron (vv36-37); Debir (vv38-39).

17. What repeated phrase shows the completeness of Israel’s victory? Why is that an important phrase? (vv28, 30, 32, 35, 37, 39)

“He left no survivors” or “totally destroyed”

Remember this is a Holy War where a Holy God is passing judgment on an evil/wicked nation that has continued to reject the one true God and worship false gods and idols and carry out the most abominable wicked practices. God uses Israel to implement His just judgment on evil. The phrase shows that Israel carried out God’s judgment and commands without compromising!

18. According to verse 40, how is the victory described and how is victory possible?

Joshua conquered the whole region and defeated all the kings. Victory was possible because the Lord, the God of Israel, commanded it and fought for His people.

19. What geographical areas were conquered in this campaign? (vv40–41)
The hill country, the Negev, the western foothills, and the mountain slopes—from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza and from Goshen to Gibeon.

20. What summary statement is given in verse 42 about the reason for Israel's success?

"The LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel."

21. What lessons can we learn about obedience and trusting God from this chapter?

- We can trust in God's promises
- Our obedience should be immediate and complete.
- Prayer is powerful when it is according to God's will and its purpose is to bring glory to God!
- God often works His miracles through ordinary human effort.
- Victory comes from God, not human strength.
- God's people should persevere rather than give up. God CAN be trusted!

Where is JESUS in Joshua 10:1-43?

There are a few ways that Jesus is in Joshua 10:1-43:

- Joshua protected the Gibeonites who were sinners yet they were surrendered to Joshua. Likewise once we submit to Jesus, He protects us, even though we are sinners!
- In his own way; Joshua had authority over the created order (stopping the sun) which points to Jesus, the one who has ALL authority over ALL creation. Jesus could walk on water; calm a storm; heal the sick; raise the dead! Joshua had a shadow of this authority; Jesus had the reality of it!
- Victorious Joshua points to victorious Jesus. Joshua's victory was not for him alone but for all his people; likewise Jesus' victory was not for Him alone but for all His people

- Joshua's victories were real and significant, but they were not the final victory. In a similar way, Christ has won the decisive victory over sin, death, and Satan, yet we still await the day when every enemy is finally subdued.
- In v18 – five Kings were in a cave and Joshua commanded “roll large rocks up to the mouth of the cave, and post some men there to guard it” – this points to the King of Kings placed in a cave/tomb with a large rock rolled in front of the entrance and armed guards placed there. The five Kings did not survive, they could not escape death but the King of Kings, was raised to life after three days and the rock was rolled away; the tomb was empty!

22. How do the following passages relate to Joshua 10:1-43?

Luke 18:1-8

The widow was persistent and bold in her prayers. Like Joshua's bold prayer for the sun to stand still, believers should pray persistently and trust that God will answer according to His divine purposes.

Romans 8:31

This verse says "If God is for us, who can be against us?" Joshua 10 vividly demonstrates this truth as God fights for Israel against overwhelming opposition.

1 Corinthians 15:54-57

Joshua's military victories point forward to Christ's greater victory over death, won through His resurrection.

2 Corinthians 10:3-5

As believers our fights are spiritual battles rather than physical ones, and we must rely on God's power to overcome strongholds and opposition.

James 5:16-18

James emphasizes the effectiveness of the prayers of a righteous person. Joshua's prayer illustrates the effectiveness of the prayers of a righteous person. Like Elijah, Joshua prayed boldly and God answered powerfully.

Revelation 19:11-16

The historical battle and victory of Joshua in Joshua chapter 10 points to Jesus' ultimate and final victory of Jesus in Revelation 19 when Jesus returns in glory to judge the living and the dead.

In both Joshua 10 and Revelation 19:11-16:

- 1. Both show God's Warrior King defeating His enemies. Joshua's victory is local and temporary. Jesus' victory is universal and eternal!*
- 2. Both emphasize the battle belongs to the Lord*
- 3. Both involve the defeat of Kings who oppose God's rule. Joshua defeats five kings; Jesus defeats the beast, the false prophet and the kings of the Earth and their armies*
- 4. The name Joshua (Hebrew: Yehoshua) and Jesus (Greek: Iēsous) come from the same name meaning: "The LORD saves."*
- 5. Both passages call God's people to have courage: Repeatedly Joshua is told not to be afraid and he tells his leaders in 10:25 – "do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Be strong and courageous". Likewise Revelation was written to Christians facing persecution and opposition. The vision of Jesus' final triumph assures Christians that no matter what powerful evil appears now. Christ will ultimately win!*
- 6. Joshua's victory is incomplete; Jesus' is complete! One of the themes of Joshua is that although great victories were won, enemies still remained. Jerusalem itself was not yet captured, and much of the land still needed to be possessed. In contrast, Revelation 19 points to the complete and final defeat of all God's enemies. There will be no further battles to fight and no enemies left unconquered!*

Because of Jesus, as Romans 8:37 says: "In all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us."

What's the BIG IDEA of Joshua 10:1-43?

Because the Lord fights for His people, we can trust His promises, obey His commands, and pray boldly, knowing that victory belongs to Him.

OR

The Lord God fights for His people!

What light globe moment did you have?

Even though the King of Jerusalem was killed, Jerusalem itself was not listed as one of the cities that Joshua captured!

There are a few reasons for this:

- 7. Joshua's focus was to defeat the coalition army of five kings*
- 8. Jerusalem was a strongly fortified city – it sat on ridge and was naturally defended. Later in Judges 1:21 we read “But the people of Judah could not drive out the Jebusites who lived in Jerusalem”*
- 9. Joshua's conquest was substantial but not complete. The conquest of Canaan was not finished in his lifetime. God had already told the Israelites that the land would be taken gradually “I will not drive them out before you in a single year... Little by little I will drive them out before you” (Exodus 23:29-30)*
- 10. Jerusalem was later captured by King David in 2 Samuel 5:6-9. When David captured Jerusalem, he made it the capital and it became known as the “City of David”*

Joshua's victories were real and significant, but they were not the final victory. In a similar way, Christ has won the decisive victory over sin, death, and Satan, yet we still await the day when every enemy is finally subdued.

Study 3 – The Lord’s Victory and Israel’s Rest

Joshua 11:1-23

(Sermon on 14th June 2026)

Read Joshau 11:1-23

1. What did the Northern Kings do and who took the lead? (vv1–3)

The northern kings [Jabin of Hazor; Jobab of Madon; Kings of Shimron and Akshaph; and the northern kings in the mountains, in the Arabah south of Kinnereth, in the western foothills and Napoth Dor on the west, the Canaanites in the east and west; the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites and Jebusites in the hill country; and the Hivites below Hermon in the region of Mizpah] formed a large coalition to fight against Israel. The leader was King Jabin of Hazor. No mistake, this was a HUGE army!

All this was prompted by what the northern kings heard regarding Israel’s success and victory. Walking in victory means that we become targets — when we are awakened, so is the devil.

2. How is this Northern army coalition described? (v4)

A huge army, as numerous as the sand on the seashore; with a large number of chariots and horses; something that the Israelites do not have!

3. Where did the kings gather together to fight Israel? (v5)

They gathered at the waters of Merom to fight against Israel.

4. What command and encouragement did the Lord give Joshua before the battle? (v6)

God told Joshua: "Do not be afraid of them, because by this time tomorrow I will hand all of them, slain, over to Israel. You are to hamstring their horses and burn their chariots."

This would have been of great encouragement to Joshua and the Israelites; especially facing such a huge army.

Do not be afraid because of them: This means that fear was an issue for Joshua and the people of Israel. God has a reason for everything He does, and He would not have assured them do not be afraid unless there was a reason for the encouragement.

5. Why do you think God told Joshua not to fear such a vast army? (Romans 8:31)
Because victory depended on God's power, not Israel's strength. Romans teaches: "If God is for us, who can be against us?" God's presence removes fear even when enemies seem overwhelming.

6. What military resources does the enemy have that Israel does not? (v6)

The enemy had horses and chariots — advanced military technology Israel largely lacked.

Two things indicate that now Israel faced challenges they had never faced before.
First, the size of the enemy army: as many people as the sand that is on the seashore in multitude. Second, the technological superiority of the Canaanites: with very many horses and chariots.

i. The challenges brought to Israel seem to increase at each step, from Jericho, to Ai, to the battle with the southern kings, now to this battle.

ii. We often find that the challenges facing us in our Christian lives increase at each step. God uses each previous victory as a springboard for what we face in the future.

7. How did Joshua respond to the Lord's command? (v7)

Joshua obeyed immediately. He and his army came suddenly against the enemy and attacked them at the waters of Merom.

8. Who gave the enemy into Israel's hand? (v8)

The Lord gave them into the hand of Israel. They defeated them and pursued them all the way to Greater Sidon, to Misrephoth Maim, and to the Valley of Mizpah on the east, until no survivors were left.

9. What did Joshua do to the chariots and horses? (v9) Why? (see v6)

Joshua hamstringed the horses and burned the chariots, exactly as the Lord commanded. This prevented Israel from taking them and trusting in military power rather than trusting in God.

Joshua fought with obedience, doing exactly what the Lord told him to do, even destroying the Canaanite weapons (the horses and the chariots) instead of taking them for his own army.

Here is a lesson in the matter of "taking the devil's tools." Many Christians do not hesitate to use the "horses and chariots" of their spiritual enemy. Perhaps they should believe that God wants them to fight the battle on a different level — a level of complete trust in Him.

10. What does Joshua's obedience in verse 9 teach us?

True faith obeys God even when His commands may seem unusual, strange, or strategically unnecessary. God's people are called to trust His wisdom over human wisdom and strength.

11. What happened to Hazor and its King? (vv10-11)

Joshua captured Hazor, killed its king, and burned the city. Everyone in it was completely destroyed.

The staggering completeness of the destruction (especially in human terms) shows us the completeness of God's judgment, Israel's obedience, and the depravity of the Canaanites.

12. What repeated statement shows Joshua's faithfulness to God's commands? (vv12, 15)

V12 - as Moses the servant of the Lord had commanded.

V15 - all that the Lord commanded Moses.

13. What regions of the land did Joshua capture? (vv16–17) How long was the battle? (v18)

Joshua captured:

- The hill country
- The Negev
- Goshen
- The western foothills
- The Arabah
- The mountains of Israel and surrounding lands from Mount Halak, which rises toward Seir, to Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon.

The battles lasted "a long time."

14. Who made peace? (v19)? Who resisted and why? (v20) (cf. Exodus 14:17; Romans 9:18)

No city except the Hivites [aka Gibeonites] of Gibeon made peace with Israel.

Everyone else resisted because the Lord Himself had hardened their hearts.

Exodus 14:17 – ¹⁷ I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them. And I will gain glory through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen.

Romans 9:18 - Therefore God has mercy on whom he wants to have mercy, and he hardens whom he wants to harden.

We are told that in part, this judgment on the Canaanites was accomplished when God did harden their hearts against Israel. The hardening of men's hearts is when God gives man up to the sin that is in his heart (Romans 1:24-28).

15. Who were the Anakites, and what happened to them? (vv21–22)

The Anakites were giant warriors [the incredible hulks of Canaan] feared by Israel earlier (cf. Numbers 13). Joshua defeated and removed them from most of the land, except for a few remaining in Gaza, Gath, and Ashdod.

See Numbers 13: 28-33

28 But the people who live there are powerful, and the cities are fortified and very large. We even saw descendants of Anak there. 29 The Amalekites live in the Negev; the Hittites, Jebusites and Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live near the sea and along the Jordan.

30 Then Caleb silenced the people before Moses and said, “We should go up and take possession of the land, for we can certainly do it.”

31 But the men who had gone up with him said, “We can’t attack those people; they are stronger than we are.” 32 And they spread among the Israelites a bad report about the land they had explored. They said, “The land we explored devours those living in it. All the people we saw there are of great size. 33 We saw the Nephilim there (the descendants of Anak come from the Nephilim). We seemed like grasshoppers in our own eyes, and we looked the same to them.”

Note: Israel faced the “biggest” enemy last. God prepared them through the other battles!

Here, the foes of 40 years ago fall. They were no match for an army that was blessed and directed by God.

i. Significantly, Israel faced the Anakim last, only after God had trained them in battle and in working with Him through the months of conquest.

ii. When Israel refused to enter Canaan out of fear of the Anakim, they did not realize that God would so guide events that they would face this most difficult challenge last. God knows how to manage the battles in our lives.

iii. And we must allow God to manage those battles. All too often we are convinced that we must go out and fight the Anakim first, when God would have us face them last.

The Anakim remained only in these coastal cities occupied by the Philistines. The giant Goliath comes from the city of Gath some five hundred years later (1 Samuel 17:4)

What giants do we face in our lives? God is there with us!

16. What summary statement are we given in v23?

V23 - So Joshua took the entire land, just as the Lord had directed Moses, and he gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal divisions. Then the land had rest from war.

So Joshua took the whole land: This brings us to another section of the book of Joshua. The power of the Canaanite kings within the land has been crushed, and in this sense, Joshua took the whole land. Yet not every small town and village had been conquered and occupied. That was up to each individual tribe to do in the land that was apportioned to them.

17. What does the phrase “the land had rest from war” mean? (v23) (cf. Exodus 33:14; Matthew 11:28-30)

Just like God rested at Creation, when He completed His work; likewise Israel can rest from their “work” of war!

The phrase means that the Israelites can “rest in the Lord”; It means God gave His people relief, peace, and security after conflict.

This points forward to:

- God’s promised rest in Exodus 33:14 - The Lord replied, “My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”
- The deeper spiritual rest Jesus gives in Matthew 11:28–30 - ²⁸ “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. ²⁹ Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. ³⁰ For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

Ultimately, true rest is found in Christ.

i. “Much territory was yet to be possessed, but it was left to each tribe to possess what potentially it had received through the conquest of the whole people in which it had taken part. Each tribe was to apply individually the lessons it had learned in united war if it was to possess its inheritance. That the tribes failed to do so was not a reflection on the power of God, but on the failure to take for themselves what Joshua had given and allotted to each one of them.” (Redpath)

ii. In the same sense, Jesus has already defeated the enemy and conquered the land, but He also calls us into battle to gain what is ours.

18. Why is obedience such an important theme in Joshua chapter 11
Because Israel's success did not depend on the size of the army or the weapons they had; but on faithful obedience to God's word. Joshua models to us covenant faithfulness and obedience by doing exactly what God commanded. Obedience brings victory; peace and rest!

19. How can we remain faithful and obedient to God over long struggles or seasons of hardship?

Here are some ways:

- By trusting God's promises rather than circumstances that we face
- By worship, Bible study and devotions we can draw closer to God and this encourages us to be faithful and obedient!
- By having a greater knowledge of God's Word, so that we understand that God is always with His people
- Through faithful prayer and dependence on the Holy Spirit
- By encouraging one another in our Christian community
- By remembering what God did in the past
- By fixing our eyes on Jesus and persevering day by day
- Persevering in trials in God's strength allows us to remain faithful and obedient

Where is JESUS in Joshua 11:1-23?

- Joshua leads God's people into victory; Jesus is the greater Joshua who defeats sin, death, and Satan.
- Joshua brings temporary rest in the land; Jesus brings eternal rest for God's people.
- Joshua obeys God fully; Jesus obeys His Heavenly Father perfectly.
- Joshua conquers earthly enemies; Jesus conquers spiritual enemies through the cross and resurrection.
- Joshua had to do "hard" things; Jesus did the ultimate hard things!
- The name "Joshua" itself is related to "Jesus" and means "The LORD saves."

20. How do the following passages relate to Joshua 11:1-23?

John 8:29

Jesus says in John 8:29 that “He always does what pleases the One who sent Him”. Likewise in Joshua 11, Joshua always does what the Lord says! In other words, we must be like Jesus! If we do not keep God’s command, we cannot claim God’s protection!

Hebrews 3:12-13

Hebrews 3 warns believers not to harden their hearts through unbelief. In Joshua 11:20 – tragically, God hardened the hearts of the Northern Kings, because they resisted God in their unbelief. Note: in previous chapters Rahab and the Gibeonites were spared because they believed the power of Israel’s God!

Hebrews 4:8-10

⁸ For if Joshua had given them rest, God would not have spoken later about another day. ⁹ There remains, then, a Sabbath-rest for the people of God; ¹⁰ for anyone who enters God’s rest also rests from their works, just as God did from his.

Hebrews 4 points out that Joshua’s rest was only temporary. There still remains greater rest for the people of God.

Jesus fulfils the rest that Joshua foreshadowed.

This rest is in a person not a place — in Jesus Christ, more than in doctrines and ideas. If you meet a troubled, crying child and try to comfort them and give them rest using ideas and logic, it won’t do much good. But when mummy comes, the child is happy again.

Those who preach this rest must possess it themselves. “Not long ago, one of our ministers was preaching upon salvation, and the work of the Spirit in the heart, when one of the congregation rose and asked him respectfully, ‘Sir, do you know all this by the report of others, or has this taken place in your own experience?’ The preacher was by no means put about by the question, but rather rejoiced in it; for he could honestly reply, 'I have trusted Christ. I am saved, and I know and feel the peace which results there from.' If he could not have made that solemn statement, he would have had no influence over the person who had put the question." (Spurgeon)

1. Present Rest — Rest in Christ Now

Jesus gives spiritual rest now to those who trust Him.

For example: "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest."(Matthew 11:28)

This includes:

- Rest from trying to earn salvation by works
- Peace with God
- Confidence that Christ has completed the work of salvation
- Rest for weary souls amid life's burdens

Hebrews 4:10 says:

"Anyone who enters God's rest also rests from their works..."

Meaning we stop relying on our own efforts to make ourselves righteous before God.

2. Future Rest — Eternal Rest with God

The passage also points ahead to the final rest believers will experience: in God's presence, free from sin, free from suffering, free from temptation, free from death, and free from spiritual warfare.

That's why Hebrews still speaks of a rest that believers are moving toward:

"Let us therefore make every effort to enter that rest" (4:11).

Christians already belong to Christ, yet still await the fullness of what He has promised.

3. Sabbath Rest Fulfilled

The word "Sabbath-rest" in Hebrews 4 also connects back to:

- God resting after creation (Genesis 2),
- Israel resting in the land when they conquer it,

- and the weekly Sabbath we are meant to enjoy.

All of these point ultimately to the deeper rest Jesus brings: a restored relationship with God, peace, security, and eternal fellowship with Him. This is the peace that the Apostle Paul describes as “a peace that surpasses all understanding”. It’s a peace that is not dependent on our circumstances but knows “all is well with us” because we are yoked to Jesus!

Hebrews 12:1-3

Hebrews 12 calls Christians to persevere with endurance by fixing their eyes on Jesus. Likewise, Joshua, in this long military battle had to persevere with faithfulness and remain steadfast and obedient over a long period of time. We are required to do the same!

1 John 2:3-6

1 John 2 teaches that those who know and love God obey Him. This is precisely what Joshua did in his military campaign, He obeyed God completely. Likewise, Jesus obeyed His Heavenly Father completely.

What’s the BIG IDEA of Joshua 11:1-23?

God gives victory and rest to His people as they faithfully trust and obey Him, pointing forward to Jesus Christ, the greater Joshua, who brings ultimate victory and eternal rest.

OR

God gives victory and true rest to those who trust and obey Him through Jesus Christ.

What light globe moment did you have?

The continued pattern of obedience in the Book of Joshua. When Joshua and the Israelites fully obey God, things go smoothly; when they disobey God, it’s a disaster!

If we do not keep God’s command, we cannot claim God’s protection!
